APPEAL TO BHAMASHAH AS (DONORS/SPONSORS)

“...Parahita Saris Dharma Nahin Bhaai...” [O Brother! You must appreciate, no Dharma equals a Good Deed for Others, i.e., Philanthropy for the needy is the best Righteousness”]. You know, this altruistic dictum, in the discerning eyes of Goswami Tulsidas as structured in his magnum opus the Ramcharitmanas, is the core tip of the world famous epic Ramayana that describes the life and times of Maryadapurushottam Bhagwan Sri Rama. Bhagwan Ved Vyasa also sums up the entire world of scriptures in his universal and timeless signature maxim: “...Paropakaaraaya Punyaaya, Paapaaya Para Peedanam...” (“It is divinely meritorious, elevating and rewarding to serve the cause of the needy, gentle, innocent, meek and pious while it is a sin to harm and terrorize them”). Surely, “Nar Seva is Narayan Seva”. Sri Ramakrishna Paramhans commanded Swami Vivekananda and other followers to do “Shiva Gyaane Jeeva Seva”.

It is on this broad spectrum and matrix of “Seva Dharma” that the Bharatiya Jansewa Sansthan - a non-profit charity – has been working in the country since 1986 to elevate and empower our brethren living in the woods, mountains and those below the poverty line. Our service projects cover the basic aspects of education, skill development, health care, self-employment, self-reliance, rehabilitation, irrespective of race, colour, caste, creed, religion, gender, etc. It also cultivates the holistic, altruistic and syncretic culture (Kulaachhaar) of the Himalayan Tradition and cultural & economic nationalism.

In order to meet the infrastructure, logistics and running costs of the service projects and provide for the travel and token honorarium of 100 whole-time itinerants and other manpower engaged in the onerous task, we need an amount of INR Five-Crore (INR 50 million) per annum. Your esteemed Society/Trust is known for charitable activities. Your good-self and your friends individually are also into philanthropic and charitable activities. We would urge upon your Society/Trust and friends to help generously for this national cause which action on your part will be highly appreciated. Your liberal contribution would be put to genuine use and in the process you would earn divine merits for your service to the cause of Maa Bhaarati and Her needy children.

The following inspiring Rajasthani couplet speaks volumes in the matter for your discerning appreciation:-

“Mar Jaauun Maangoo Nahiin Apne Hita Ke Kaaj, Paramaaraath Re Kaarane Mohi Na Aawey Laaj.”

(I would rather die than ask a favour for myself, but I would never be reluctant if it is for the Divine Cause or service of the Lord Almighty presenting Himself in the form of the needy.)

Hope a Daanveer of your stature would sympathize and empathize with this cause and pledge to extend your proactive co-operation to the Sansthan.

For the convenience of the esteemed Donors in matters of income tax exemption, the Bharatiya Jansewa Sansthan has the facilities u/s 80-G of Income Tax Act and also Foreign Contributions (Regulation) Act (FCRA) of Government of India.
